We well remember hearing this celebrated divine on Thankseiving Day, in November 1887, twenty-six or Indian corn, and formed into cakes, it is both years ago, in the "old brick church," on Brekman street, long sloce demolished to make room for the demands of business in the lower part of the city. Few men in America had a more extended acquaintance than Dr. Spring.

A Los Angeles paper narrates rather a sumary mode of removing a trespesser on land. Mr. John T. Gower had taken up a quarter section of government land, and before he received his rupers a squatter built a small house on it. When the docaments were in band, he gave notice to the squatter vamose, which he declined to do. Thereupon Mr. Gower hitched his yoke of oxen to the squatter's tenement and moved it on to the adjoining section of government land. This is the way in which they do things in California.

VALLEY WATER.-The supply of water is becoming more and more scarce. Dwellings in Namen. which for twenty years have never been without an abundance of water, are now entirely destitute. Housekeepers in town should be careful of their tame and not allow the water to run to waste, nor to use it for irrigation except from four till six P. M. each day. Horses, asses, mules, as well as cattle, sheep, goats and hogs flourish and fatten upon the natritious bear, and the natives makes it into cakes of brend, that are quite cakes, similar to oil cakes, it has been imported from the south of Spain into Great Britain. The current superstitution among the Spanisrds is, that it was the food of St. John in the wilderness, and it has received the name of St. John's bread. There may be some foundation for this popular belief, as the tree is still found in portions of Palestine, Idames and Arabia. In North America, the alguroba has a wide of Mesquiti, now spelled and pronounced meet that two years would have to be spent in surveys quit (meskeet). It reaches its greatest perfection and vigor of growth on the slopes of the table lands of Mexico, Texas, Arigona and New Mexico. It is found nowhere above 36 deg. of north latitude, and it becomes diminutive in growth as far north as 34 deg. on the American continent. In Arizona and New Mexico it furnishes the principal food of the savage tribes of Apaches, and the more civilized Pimas and Mohaves use the bean as an article of diet. When ground on the metate, in the same method as they grind marze palatable and nutritious. I have frequently tested its qualities, and found it equally as nutritious as the same quantity of bard bread, and more palatable

The Mohave Indians, inhabiting an extensiveand secluded valley in the Colorado of the West, priocipally subsist on the algaroba or mesquit bean. They are physically the largest and best proportioned race on our planet. Few of them, male or female, are under six feet high and well proportioned. They are as far superior to the inhabitants of Terra del Fuego, and yet, until intercourse with the white race in 1850, sarmal food was unknown to them, and it required some years of intercourse before they could be induced

When sawn into planks and worked up into farniture, it would be very difficult to distinguish it from the Hawaiian kon. It bears a fine polish and the grain, like the kos, is often curled and mottled. For firewood it has no superior, and the charcoal is esteemed the best for all purposes in countries where it is JEFFREY & CO.'S EDINBURGH ALE, known.

It is noted for the production of honey. The flowers are the resort of the honey-bee, and they impurts most agreeable flavor to the honey. There is a district in Yucatan, where this tree flourishes to the exclusion of all others. Its honey is so noted that it is frequently exported to Europe; and known as the honey of Estebenton. Its delicious flavor is attributable entirely to the flowers of the algaroba or mesquit. Then there is another peculiarity about the algaroba, which makes it invaluable. It flourishes better in its grass than in any other situation. The mesquit grass is peculiar to this tree. It has been transplanted from Texas to other Southern States of America, and found to flourish vigorously and displaces all other grasses. That grass is what is here called the maniania. Such's California Asthma Cure! To THE PUBLIC.—For the past two years I have been subject to severe coughing spells, especially in the marging, is soon as I would awake. This cough at last terminated in a meet severe situate of attimut. cough at last terminated in a most severe attack of asthmathia being a disease hereditary to our family. Last Attack of asthmat. 1872. I was seized with a most severe attack of asthma. I coughed so much that it seemed to take away all strength. I could est nothing without its giving me severe pain in the cheek and inner. I called its a decreation his medicine but to no purpose. I was recommended to go into a warmer climate, and I wynt in San Jess, but change of climate had no effect, and note it is San Jess, but change of climate had no effect, and when I set has Jose I never expected to recover, I shadly fried this resisely, which gave such relief at once that I conclused backer had it effected a complete and radical curs. I set now as hale and hearty as I ever was in my 16th Lines recommended it to others, and it invariably produced the same happy results. I now recommend it to the pulse, because I believe, as a remedy for astima, it has no equal.
